You and your family will Travel the World and experience Special Global Entertainment which includes:

The Russian Children's Theatre will perform a 20 minute selection from their production of "Thumbelina." This group is performing in Houston, Dallas, Washington, D.C. and Moscow, Russia this year. They will bring 12 children to perform, all of whom are from Russian families residing in the US. Your family will enjoy the production in Russian with a translator explaining in English.

Lee's Golden Dragon Dancers have been performing since 1974. They are going to perform a traditional Chinese Lion Dance. This dance company has performed for halftime shows for the Houston Rockets and the Dynamos, for Houston's Former Mayor Bill White, and for Former President Bush and his wife, Barbara. They have performed all over Texas and in Louisiana.

Cardini, otherwise known as Carter Blackburn, the master of all things magical, has dazzled fans of illusion since his boyhood debut in Houston, Texas. Thrilling audiences of all ages, Carter presents a mesmerizing show that is far more than a mere slight of hand. Magic tricks that tease the imagination and defy the believable create a festive excitement as fans participate in the illusions or simply shake their heads in wonder. Carter performs regularly all over Texas and is very involved with his youth group at Second Baptist Church. He has plans to attend the University of Houston this fall.

The Choir of the Ethiopian Christian Fellowship Church (ECFC) in Houston, established in 1984, will conclude our 2010 Heritage Day global tour with joyful praise music! The choir has grown to 25 members over the years. The ECFC choir has conducted concerts and participated in numerous conferences across the country. By focusing on exalting Jesus Christ and making Him the center of their ministry and worship, the choir has been positively impacting the lives of its members, the congregation as a whole, and now our 2010 Heritage Day!
